PRESENTATION

The International Congress Indigenous Worlds (COIMI) is a biannual event, created within the framework of the Permanent Seminar Indigenous Worlds - Abya Yala (SEPMIAI) at the Humanities Centre (CHAM / NOVA FCSH-UAC) at the New University of Lisbon, Portugal in partnership with the Federal University of Campina Grande, Paraíba, Brazil between 27 and 28 April 2015. The Indigenous Worlds group of CHAM-UNL implemented the COIMI with the support of the Pablo Olavide University, Seville, Spain, and in 2019 the COIMI was held in Sorbonne Nouvelle, Paris, France. COIMI is a space for reflection and debate on issues linked to indigenous peoples. A collaborative network with national and international scope for interdisciplinary discussions on indigenous peoples of America past and present. In the IV COIMI - ABYA YALA 2023 that will take place in the Universidad del Magdalena, city of Santa Marta, Colombia, it is intended to expand the dialogues between indigenous and non-indigenous researchers, to build a new epistemological, political, decolonial and interdisciplinary paths on the subjects: Territories, Territorializations and Indigenous Knowledge/Colombia/2023.

INDIGENOUS AND NON-INDIGENOUS PUBLIC TARGET

- Teachers
- Researchers
- Undergraduate and post-graduate students
- Activists/indigenists
- Others interested in the indigenous theme
- Indigenous organizations

GENERAL OBJECTIVE

Consolidate the collaborative network of national and international scope that has been working in Europe and Abya Yala (Americas) on interdisciplinary issues related to the violations, conquests and resurgence of indigenous peoples' struggles between the 16th and 21st centuries. The focus is on re-examining the issue of indigenous peoples from contemporary perspectives such as history, memory, education, recognition of ethnicities, territories, heritage and nature as historical and inalienable rights
